WHY	To study God's word and make it an active part of our lives. Not sure which book we'll be looking at yet – to be decided at first meeting. To provide prayer, support and encouragement for each other. To get to know each other better, and generally to have a great time!	"Coming to Jesus in brokenness: A small group sharing the Bible with each other" We're pretty relaxed about bible study. We take turns telling each other how moving we've found a certain passage of scripture. How relevant it has become, or how it has changed our perspective of God's grace, love and forgiveness.	For conversation & community & prayer and to read this great book by Ray Bakke, A Theology As Big As The City. We want to get a better understanding of what we're doing in the city as Christians & how we relate to our urban environment. We'll also participate in the dinner Knox has every week (and food bank) for street youth in our neighbourhood.	Money! Sex! Power! One of our favourite authors, Richard J. Foster, has tackled these topics in The Challenge of the Disciplined Life. With this book in hand (and some cookies in the other) we'll take a look at the good and evil forces that propel our city, our relationships, and our faith.	The short 4-chapter book of Ruth reveals to us the nature of our God. It shows His grace was always available for those with faith and indicates that the old & new testaments carry the same message. Our general set-up: chit chat, opening prayer, study and discussion, voluntary prayer for one another.	We're studying Romans in order to draw nearer to God and to challenge our faith with Biblical truth.	Let's DO something! We'll be studying the Gospel of Matthew while seeking ways to put our faith and learning into practice through serving our community as a group of believers. Ann and Sam are keen teachers of manuscript studies – members of our group will have the opportunity to lead in this inductive style of learning. We also really like to pray.

WHY	To create community and gain a better understanding of our faith by considering not just one part of the bible, but the whole sweep of scripture. We'll start with 4 weeks looking at how the Bible fits together as a narrative and then we'll tackle some key issues (e.g. the role of the Holy Spirit, women & leadership, etc).	To nurture community and friendship among those of us who are recently (or relatively recently) married, to encourage each other as we figure out our callings as Christians, and to serve the church in a variety of ways. It's good times all around.	To study Paul's letter to the Christians in Rome, aka Romans. Also, for community, spiritual growth and accountability (in the most positive sense) Also, for oatmeal (see above)	Focused on prayer for each other and Knox's ministry to the city	To read good books and reflect on them Christianly (if that's a word): 1st, Sidewalks in the Kingdom: New Urbanism and the Christian Faith by Eric Jacobsen; 2nd, The Assassin's Song by M.G. Vassanji – and then, the sky's the limit	So that artists (actors, visual artists, dancers, musicians, writers, film-makers, etc) at Knox can get to know each other and start to wonder about what could happen next – but mainly to create community amongst us artist-types at the church.	Sept.22: The Lives of Others (Das Leben Der Anderen) Later in the fall (date tba): Thank You For Smoking And so on...
